

PANELLIST BIOGRAPHY

MERVYN TANG

Head of Sustainability Strategy, APAC, Schroders

Mervyn Tang is responsible for Schroders' Sustainability Strategy in the Asia Pacific. In this role he works in partnership with our client facing and product teams to build our sustainable investment propositions across the region and leads the company's Regional Centre of Excellence for Sustainability.

Prior to this he was Global Head of ESG Research at Fitch Ratings from 2019 to 2021, overseeing a research team of 4 analysts across London and Hong Kong which primarily focus on thematic and cross sector ESG research.

Mervyn was also Head of Fixed Income, ESG Research, at MSCI from 2017 to 2019, a Sovereign credit analyst at Fitch Ratings from 2015 to 2017, an Economist at the Bank of England from 2009 to 2015, and an Equities Sales Analyst at Citigroup in London from 2007 to 2009.

He obtained his MSc in Economics from Birkbeck College, University of London, BA in Economics and Management from Oxford University and a CFA Charter holder.